Brazilian Literature & Culture Concentration

Requirements
Below are the courses that are offered most often for this concentration. Students should consult with the Associate Director for Academic Programs to determine if other courses are available for the concentration in any given semester.

Note: All students with a Brazilian Literature and Culture concentration must complete SPAN 502. This course provides an introduction to literary analysis and to MLA style bibliography writing and research.

- PORT 461 Topics in Brazilian Literature
- PORT 514 Topics in Luso-Brazilian Literature and Culture
- PORT 515 Popular Brazilian Music I
- PORT 516 Brazilian Cinema
- PORT 517 Popular Brazilian Music II
- PORT 521 Brazilian Theater
- PORT 557 Encounters with the New World I
- PORT 558 Encounters with the New World II
- PORT 570 Seminar in Luso-Brazilian Literature and Culture
- SPAN 502 Proseminar: Research and Critical Methodology

Faculty
Jeremy Lehnen
Leila Lehnen