

LATIN AMERICAN & IBERIAN INSTITUTE'S 4TH ANNUAL Field Research Grant Colloquium

Friday, November 2
12:00 - 2:00 pm

Latin American & Iberian Institute

(801 Yale Blvd NE; north of the Duck Pond and down the hill)

ANTHONY MELUSO
Department of Geography
and Environmental Studies
"La gota que colma la
caguama: How a Brewery Development Sparked Public Participation in Water Decisions"

MARIANA SIERRA
Department of Spanish and Portuguese
"Thinking About Democracy in Brazil:
Some Perspectives from an 'Engaged'
Literature"

SARAH LEITER
Department of Anthropology
"Becoming Jewish in Brazil: Ethnographic Insights"

HAYLEY PEDRICK
Latin American Studies
"Textures of Transition:
Understanding Memorial
Spaces in Medellín,
Colombia"

JENS VAN GYSEL
Department of Linguistics
"Variation in Vowel Productions
in Sanapaná, an Endangered
Language from Paraguay"

ANDRÉ NASCIMENTO
Department of Spanish and Portuguese
"Dictatorship and its Legacies to the LGBTTIQ Community in Argentina and Uruguay: The Case of Invisibility and the Reaction Proposed by Literature and the Archives"