

Insights from Brazil: Implementing Participatory Budgeting (PB) in Albuquerque

Professor Marcelo Nerling

September 10, 2024 | 3:00 - 5:00 PM

Latin American and Iberian Institute (801 Yale Blvd NE) Main Conference Room

With Panel Participants:

Councillor Rogers, 6th District

Marcelo Nerling, University of Sao Paulo

Jennifer Tucker, University of New Mexico

Andreas Hernandez, University of New Mexico

Albuquerque policy analyst (TBA)

District 6 Community leader (TBA)

This panel will examine key questions and issues in Participatory Budgeting through a collaborative and generative discussion, with the goal of contributing to the creation of a transformative PB in ABQ

Participatory budgeting (PB) is a democratic process in which community members directly decide how to allocate a portion of a public budget, giving them a say in funding decisions that affect their lives

Professor Marcelo Nerling is a distinguished scholar whose work focuses on public policy management through budgetary frameworks

GUADALUPE INSTITUTE
Western Hemisphere Center

LATIN AMERICAN
& IBERIAN INSTITUTE