Border Landscapes: The Outsider Within and the Occupied Borderlands

Guest Lecture and Visual Essay by:
Dr. Alejandro Lugo

Thursday April 4, 2013
330-5pm
Hibben Center 105

Dr. Lugo is Professor of Anthropology and Latina/o Studies at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. His book Fragmented Lives Assembled Parts: Culture, Capitalism, and Conquest at the US-Mexico Border (University of Texas Press 2008) received two national book prizes, including the Southwest Book Prize and the Association of Latina/o Anthropologists Book Prize. His ethnographic photographs have been exhibited in several museums including two works selected for the permanent collection by the National Museum of Mexican Art in Chicago, IL.

Co-sponsored by: The Department of Anthropology, The Ortiz Center, American Studies, Chicana/o Studies and The Latin American and Iberian Institute.