

Our Place

Young Children's artworks from 1977
Latin America and Present Day New Mexico
2023, March 23-April 1
UNM Masley Gallery

Co-Sponsored by:
UNM Art Education and UNM Latin American and Iberian Institute's
K-12 Outreach Program

Child's Artwork, 8 years old
Jardín De Niños Federico Froebel, Honduras 1977

Sandias Mural, created by Alvarado Elementary School
4th and 5th grade
Art Teacher Arline Murray

The exhibit features a Resource Room with information on 1970's Latin America organized by
UNM LAII's K-12 Outreach Program

UNM Masley Gallery Special Events

March 23, 2023, 6:00 - 7:00 pm

Sponsored by UNM LAII

With the New Mexico Collaborative Teachers Institute

Author's Talk: Alexandra Diaz, SANTIAGO'S ROAD HOME,

Received star reviews from

Publisher's Weekly, Kirkus, and Booklist and an ALA Notable Children's Book.

Alexandra will share her writing process and telling the complex story of immigration and migration from a child's perspective. Time will be given to discussing the children's perspectives as shown in their artworks.

Family Day: April 1, 2023, 11:00 am - 1:00 pm

Refreshments from UNM LAII and

Artmaking with UNM Art Ed Students

UNM Masley Gallery, Building 68

<https://mmuf.unm.edu/regional-conference/unm-campus-map.pdf>