Andean Sounds: A Quechua Music Showcase

Luis Rodríguez, Andean singer and composer

NOVEMBER 19

Tuesday, November 19, 2024 | 1:00 PM | LAI Conference Room

Join the LAI for a showcase on Andean culture led by Andean musician Lucho Rodríguez.

In this presentation, Lucho will share his experiences as an Andean musician and his knowledge of the Peruvian Quechua language. He will perform a song in Quechua and showcase some of the instruments he plays.

Luis (Lucho) A. Rodríguez is originally from Cusco, Peru, and now calls Albuquerque home. An architect and musician by nature, Lucho retired from architecture to fully embrace his passion for music. As a singer and composer of Andean music, he is a multi-instrumentalist, skilled in the charango, zampoñas, quena, and guitar.

This lecture is free and open to the public. Individuals of all abilities are encouraged to attend LAI-sponsored events. If you require a reasonable accommodation to participate in one of our events, please visit laii.unm.edu/events/accessibility.html or contact laiioutreach@unm.edu.
