

UNIVERSIDAD DE LAS AMERICAS – PUEBLA
Spanish Immersion Program
Study Abroad Fellowship
May 15 – June 26, 2009

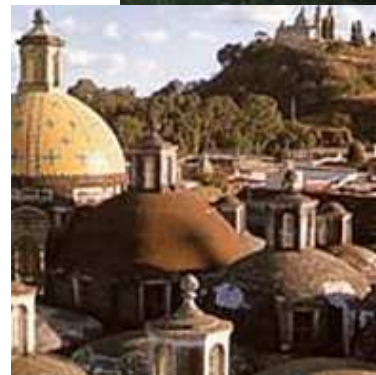

Located in the lovely, small, safe town of Cholula, Mexico, the Universidad de las Americas – Puebla (UDLAP) is offering one UNM Student a scholarship worth over $2000 USD to attend 6 weeks at their International Center for Language and Culture.

The program is a perfect combination of high-quality academic courses and recreational activities designed to provide a total immersion experience in Mexican culture. All activities ensure that the student is able to actively participate in the discovery, comparison, and creation of his or her environment, at the same time forming connections to help develop cultural and linguistic skills.

This Scholarship Includes:

- Registration Fees
- Academic Transcript
- Two Spanish Courses (6 credits)
- Orientation Session
- Cultural Program
- Room and Board
- Field Trips to Puebla, Cholula and Tlaxcala
- Student ID Card (access to the gymnasium, sport facilities, health center)
- 50 free copies
- Closing Ceremony

Program Dates: Friday, May 15th to Friday, June 26th, 2009

Application Deadline: April 20th, 2009

Program Cost to Recipient: $500 USD

<http://www.udlap.mx/internacional/cilc/spanishimmersion/>

To apply:

- Submit a one-page Letter of Intent
- 2 Letters of Recommendation (from UNM Professors)
- Copy of Unofficial Transcript

For more information please contact:

Robyn Côté
Latin American and Iberian Institute
801 Yale NE
MSC02 1690
1 University of New Mexico
Albuquerque, NM 87131-0001
Tel. 505-277-6843
Fax 505-277-5989
Email: rcote@unm.edu
<http://lail.unm.edu/study-abroad>
<http://www.udlap.mx/internacional/cilc/spanishimmersion/>

