

CNM•UNM

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES LECTURE SERIES

SPRING 2019

All lectures will be held on the CNM main campus in Smith Brasher (SB).

Wednesday, February 20 | 3:00 - 4:00 pm
CNM, SB 207

MULTILINGUALISM, LANGUAGE CONTACT, AND LANGUAGE ENDANGERMENT IN PARAGUAY

Jens Van Gysel, PhD Student
UNM Department of Linguistics

Tuesday, March 5 | 3:00 - 4:00 pm
CNM, SB 213

THE US EMBASSY'S ROLE IN HUMAN RIGHTS IN GUATEMALA: HOW FOREIGN SERVICE OFFICERS CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

David Lindwall, Retired Foreign Service Officer
MA Student, UNM Latin American Studies program

Wednesday, March 27 | 3:00 - 4:00 pm
CNM, SB 207

MEXICAN RETURNEE YOUTH REDEFINE QUERENCIA AND SENSE OF BELONGING

Ruth Galván Trinidad, Associate Professor
UNM Department of Language, Literacy, and Sociocultural Studies

Magdalena Vasquez Dathe, PhD Student
UNM Department of Language, Literacy, and Sociocultural Studies

Organized jointly by the CNM and UNM Latin American Studies programs.

lail.unm.edu/events