

Semana Cervantina

April 23 - 27, 2019

CERVANTINE WEEK APRIL 23RD – 27TH

To commemorate the "International Day of the Book"
and the "Day of the Spanish Language"

TUESDAY, APRIL 23RD

Wells Fargo Auditorium at the NHCC.

LECTURE AND DISCUSSION GROUP:
"SPAIN AND THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE UNITED STATES"

7:00 P.M.

Historian Dr. Tom Chavez will discuss the making of early U.S. history from Spanish resources, the language of Cervantes. Dr. Chavez will give a 45-minute lecture and there will be a group discussion to talk in detail about his research and further opportunities for researching in Cervantes' language. Assistants will need to sign up for the discussion group limited to 20.

Contact adx2abq@cervantes.es to register.

Book signing – bring your own book.

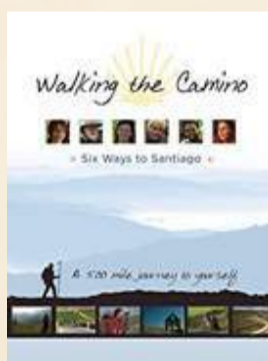

Free event – Donations welcome

THURSDAY, APRIL 25TH

Wells Fargo Auditorium at the NHCC.

FILM SCREENING:
"WALKING EL CAMINO: SIX WAYS TO SANTIAGO"

7:00 P.M.

Directed and produced by the American Lydia B. Smith, this documentary has managed to captivate both the sensitivity of experienced pilgrims and future walkers. Through the story of its six protagonists, the film is evocative, as well as inspiring, not only for those who already know the Way but also for those who have not yet traveled, and who when leaving the cinema promise or want to do it one day .

Followed by Q&A with Director Lydia B. Smith and Antonio Caballero, Director of the Spanish Resource Center.

Free event - Donations welcome

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24TH

Wells Fargo Auditorium at the NHCC.

FLAMENCO CONCERT:
"POETRY AS MUSIC"

7:00 P.M.

Fernando Barros (cantaor) presents "The Metamorphics" with Tito Rios, Brian Nelson & Juan Aniceto.

This concert extrapolates on Leonard Cohen's musical compositions, along with classics, to receive the texts or poems written by Spanish authors of the past, such as Miguel de Cervantes and Federico Garcia Lorca.

Free event - Donations welcome

FRIDAY, APRIL 26TH

Bank of America Theater at the NHCC

"POESÍA ERES TÚ" Children's Poetry Contest - XIX edition.

9:00 - 1:00 P.M.

CUENTISTAS 2019. XV edition.

1:30 - 2:45 P.M.

A literary contest for New Mexico Middle and High schools students, who write about their own choice topics. There are 2 categories of participants: native Spanish speakers and non-Spanish speakers in grades 6th to 12th in NM

SATURDAY, APRIL 27TH

History and Literary Arts Building at the NHCC

NHCC CHILDREN'S BILINGUAL BOOK FESTIVAL

9:00 - 1:00 P.M.

Coinciding with National Poetry Month; Children's Day, Book Day; Arbor Day; and Semana Cervantina/Poesía eres tú, this festival will celebrate children's books written in Spanish and English and Native languages and English.

