

Retrieving the Real History: Exploring the Margaret Randall Archives at UNM

Wednesday, October 28 • Register for both events at bit.ly/32vafUo

Organized as part of University Library's annual Willard Lecture series, these events will feature Margaret Randall's conversation with Nicaraguan revolutionary and writer Gioconda Belli, as well as readings from Randall's new memoir, I Never Left Home. This conversation will be preceded by a panel of scholars discussing Randall's poetic, scholarly, and photographic archives, which are held at the Center for Southwest Research.

Using the Randall Archives: Photography, Poetry, Politics

2:00-3:45 p.m. MDT | Virtual Event - bit.ly/32vafUo

A panel followed by audience discussion featuring Naomi Ambriz (American Studies), Dr. Jessica Frazier (University of Rhode Island), Barbara Korbal (CSWR Fellow), Gabriela Silva (Mexican Independent Scholar), and Dr. Roberto Tejada (University of Houston)

Two Poets, Two Revolutionaries, Two Friends: Gioconda Belli and Margaret Randall Converse

4:00-6:30 p.m. MDT | Virtual Event - bit.ly/32vafUo

The session begins with a 90-minute conversation between Randall and Belli, introduced by UNM President Garnett Stokes. Audience discussion with Randall and Belli will follow the conversation.

University Libraries
Office of Academic Affairs
Feminist Research Institute
Department of English
Latin American and Iberian Institute

Spanish and Portuguese Department
College of Fine Arts
Department of History
The Lannan Foundation