

Frida Kahlo, Diego Rivera, and Mexican Modernism

K-12 Educator Workshops

Join the Albuquerque Museum and The University of New Mexico Latin American & Iberian Institute for free professional development workshops focused on Frida Kahlo, Diego Rivera, and Mexican Modernism. The works of art in this exhibition epitomize the vitality and expressiveness of modern Mexican art. They were produced in a pivotal period in Mexican history, when the nation sought to redefine itself through political, social, and cultural reforms.

The Women of Mexican Modernism

Friday, February 19 • 3:30 p.m. MST

Register at: <http://bit.ly/3iulON5>

Identity and Representation Through the Lens of Mexican Modernism

Friday, March 5 • 3:30 p.m. MST

Register at: <http://bit.ly/38Y1Wnf>

Frida Kahlo
1907 Coyoacán, Mexico City, Mexico – 1954 Coyoacán, Mexico City, Mexico
Self-Portrait with Monkeys, 1943
Oil on canvas

The Jacques and Natasha Gelman Collection of 20th Century Mexican Art and the Vergel Foundation