

The LAII is excited to host a zine and podcast release party in conjunction with the Latin American Film and Media, Latin American Culture and Society, and History of Human Rights courses

LAII Open House: Zine and podcast release party

Come check out LAS students' final projects & celebrate the end of the semester

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7 • 1:00 - 3:00 PM

LATIN AMERICAN AND IBERIAN INSTITUTE, UNM • 801 YALE BLVD NE

Latin American Culture and Society worked with Menaul High School students to create intriguing zines about sports, foodways, music, visual art, and fashion. Their main objective was to promote interest and understanding of the region. History of Human Rights produced podcasts, infographics and restaurative maps that denounce cases of human rights violations in indigenous territories and urban centers. Latin American Film and Media created podcasts on Latin American queer identities and magic realism to challenge pan-Latin American stereotypes and promote Latin American cinema.

Refreshments and snacks will be served. This lecture is free and open to the public. Individuals of all abilities are encouraged to attend LAII-sponsored events. If you require a reasonable accommodation to participate in one of our events, please visit laii.unm.edu/events/accessibility.html or contact laiioutreach@unm.edu
