

The Field Research Grant Colloquium

OCTOBER 21

Tuesday, October 21, 2025 | 2:00 PM | LAII Conference Room

Join the LAII for a panel event where former field research grant recipients discuss their research projects.

Graduate students can benefit significantly from the opportunity to conduct field research in Latin America, where they combine practice with theory and connect their scholarship to lived experiences or archival data. All potential applicants are encouraged to attend.
