

2025 FALL LECTURE SERIES

Hosted by: International Studies Institute

Topic: Civil Wars

Location: 335 Ortega Hall

Time: 3:30-4:30 PM

SEPTEMBER

- 9/10 Kathy Powers (UNM, Africana Studies/Political Science)
"Transitional Justice in Post-Conflict Societies"
- 9/17 Phil Hultquist (UNM, Global & National Security Studies)
"Rise and Fall of the Khalistan Insurgency in India's Punjab, 1980-1993"
- 9/24 Sarah Drier (UNM, Political Science)
"Violating Rights Amid Conflict: The Case of Northern Ireland"

OCTOBER

- 10/1 Javier Osorio (University of Arizona, Government & Public Policy)
"Demand and Supply of Criminal Governance in Latin America"
- 10/15 Jessica Braithwaite (University of Arizona, Government and Public Policy)
"The Organizational Complexity of Civil Wars"
- 10/22 David Prior (UNM, History)
"What is a 'Reconstruction'? The International Origins of the Idea of a Postwar Reordering"
- 10/29 Caroline Hartzell (Gettysburg College, Political Science)
"Power-sharing Measures: Can Tools Used to Secure Negative Peace Help to Foster Positive Peace?"

NOVEMBER

- 11/5 Chris Butler + Margaret Avera (UNM, Political Science)
"Sexual Violence during Civil War"
- Mark Peceny + Bill Stanley (UNM, Political Science)
- 11/12 "The Unravelling of Post-War Democracies in Central America"

sbishop@unm.edu

INTERNATIONAL
STUDIES INSTITUTE

