

School of Law Lunch and Speaker Event

THE IMPACT OF TRUMP'S TARIFFS

In this event speakers will discuss and answer questions about the impact of the Trump tariffs on the U.S. economy and relationship with our trading partners, including Mexico and Canada. Professor Paul Figueroa of the School of Law will be moderating a panel that includes Professors Manuel Montoya, Xiaoyang Wang, and Wendy Hansen as well as Mexican Consul Patricia Pinzón Sánchez.

We will be serving Mati Peruvian cuisine. Please join us to eat and learn!

Wednesday,
April 9

12:30 PM - 2 PM

School of Law
Room 2401

1117 Stanford Dr NE,
Albuquerque, NM 87106

EVENT SPEAKERS

Professor of Economics
Xiaoyang Wang

Professor of Global Political Economy and Cultural Economics
Manuel Montoya

Professor of Political Science
Wendy Hansen

Consul of Mexico
Patricia Pinzón Sánchez

Moderator
Professor of Law
Paul Figueroa

This event is open to the public
Lunch will be provided

Thank you UNM, UNM Latin American & Iberian Institute, the School of Law International Law Society, and the Consulate of Mexico for making this event possible.